In Memory of Charles Messner

This past year, the Denver Fair Committee was saddened by the passing of a long time resident and valued member of the Denver Community. Charles Messner passed away on July 25, 2023 at the age of 97 years young.

Charles was a volunteer, committee member and/or director of the Denver Fair since its beginning. He is most remembered for the many hours he spent raising funds needed to complete major building projects in the Denver Park, constructing tables, displays, etc., when the committee could not afford to purchase them, serving as chairperson of the apiary department, and offering sound advice when needed. Charles was recognized as the Pennsylvania State Association of County Fairs Zone 4 Person of the Year in 2009.

In addition to serving his community at the annual Denver Fair, Charles served the town of Denver as mayor from November 1973 through December 1977 and again from November 1994 through December 1998, as a member of Denver Borough Council, and as a volunteer on numerous borough committees.

Charles was a member of the Denver Lions Club for more than 40 years. In 2000, he received the Melvin Jones Fellowship Award which recognizes a Lion's deep commitment to the ideals of Lionism.

Charles was a faithful member of Mellingers Lutheran Church where he served for many years as a Council Member, a Sunday School teacher, and as a property maintenance volunteer.

Charles was a Navy Veteran of World War II serving in the Pacific on the LSM 161 and was a Charter Member of the Reinholds VFW Post 6759.

Charles was predeceased by his wife Ruth and is survived by his children Anne (Dennis) Worley, and Michael (Christine) Messner, four grandchildren, and eight great-grandchildren.

Charles will be missed by all.
